Fr Jim’s Jottings

RED is everywhere today in honor of the Holy Spirit. Last Sunday in celebrating the Lord’s Ascension, we remembered that He promised to send the Holy Spirit to guide and protect the Church. That’s what we celebrate today. God loves us and will never abandon us till the end of time.

We believe that on Pentecost the Holy Spirit manifested Himself in tongues of fire and wind that blew through the Upper Room where the apostles were hiding. The fearful disciples were transformed into courageous witnesses to all the Jesus said and did. They left the Upper Room and went out to the whole world proclaiming Jesus Christ.

That same Spirit is among us today. What happened on that first Pentecost can happen today. We just need the courage to let the Spirit work within us. May we pray for an openness to His presence.

This week I will be gone to Chicago. We Capuchins have our triennial Chapter meeting at Xavier University. We elect new leadership and look at issues affecting our life as Capuchins. I invite your prayers that the days together will produce good results. Thank you!

Two weekends ago we concluded our Jubilee Year celebration with the laying of our Time Capsule into our church wall. It was then sealed with our Jubilee stone. Only God knows when that Time Capsule will be opened and by whom. Let us again give thanks to everyone who worked so hard in making the Jubilee celebrations a great success.

WWDWWD (Why We Do What We Do)
What does PENTECOST mean?
Pentecost is from the Greek word 'Pentekostos', which means 'fifty'. It’s the 50th day after the Resurrection of our Lord. Pentecost is the birthday of the Church. It marks the beginning of Christianity as a purposeful movement and a new community. When Peter preached immediately afterwards, around 3,000 people believed and were baptized. This is truly one of the great feasts of our church year.

WELCOME…
We welcome into the St. Joseph Community through Baptism......
