ST. JOSEPH PARISH

Fr Jim's Jottings

Last week we welcomed our new Business Coordinator, Roger Simon, to St

Joe's staff. Unfortunately this week we say thank you and good bye to Jane Kolosso, our bookkeeper for the past year and a half. Jane was so generous to come out of retirement in February, 2017 to help the parish through a time of transition. Besides keeping the numbers straight, she brought a warm and conscientious spirit to our parish and staff.

Jane has been a life-long parishioner here. She will continue to contribute to the life of our community in the usual ways she did before coming to work for us. THANK YOU, Jane, for being so good to us. May God bless you as you begin retirement again!

Labor Day Mass

This Monday is Labor Day. We will have Mass at 9:00 am that morning. There will not be our usual 12:05 Mass. Come and pray for God's blessings on our country as we celebrate this national holiday.

WWDWWD (Why We Do What We Do)

Last week I was looking at our pews. There's a lot of history in them. Just look at the scratches and gouges that are there. But I have one question. On the back of pews there is a rectangular mark about every 16 inches that's been covered with varnish. What's that about? Well, years ago men used to wear hats to church. Women were allowed to wear them in church, but not men. There were clips in the pews for men to attach their hats. Anybody know where those clips are?

Missionary Coop Appeal

A few weeks ago, Fr. Benny Jacobs, Norbertine, was here to make an appeal on behalf of the Norbertine mission in India. The pleas was for funds to build a boarding school for the poor and orphaned children. Your support is very much appreciated. As of Wednesday, August 29, our total donations are $7432.00. Thank you so much for your generosity.
